Solution to provide full stack, system security at cloud scale

ANDOVER, Mass., April 09, 2019 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Mercury Systems, Inc. (NASDAQ: MRCY, www.mrcy.com) today announced that it will offer an Intel® Select Solution for Hardened Security with Lockheed Martin (NYSE: LMT). Designed to help defense and aerospace customers secure mission-critical data, the solution will provide hardened, full stack security that delivers best-in-class performance which sets new standards of affordability for secure and rugged tactical edge computing. The U.S.-designed solution will be manufactured and tested in Mercury's Defense Microelectronics Activity (DMEA)-accredited facilities and is expected to be delivered to the market in mid-2019.

"Mercury has over thirty years of expertise in building secure rackmount, embedded and custom Intel commercial off-the-shelf solutions for deployment into ground, surface, subsurface and airborne environments," said Scott Orton, Vice President and General Manager of Mercury's Trusted Mission Solutions group. "Our long-standing partnership with Intel enables us to provide high-performance, sophisticated platforms that meet or exceed the mission requirements of Department of Defense end-customers and industry-leading prime contractors, such as Lockheed Martin."
