

Mercury Systems Receives $2.1M Order for State-of-the-Art RF Amplifiers Integrated into Naval Electronic Support Program

May 9, 2019 at 4:15 PM EDT

ANDOVER, Mass., May 09, 2019 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Mercury Systems, Inc. (NASDAQ: MRCY, www.mrcy.com) announced it received a $2.1 million order from a leading defense prime contractor for custom-engineered radio frequency (RF) amplifiers delivering industry-leading performance required for an advanced naval electronic support program. The order was booked in the Company's fiscal 2019 third quarter and is expected to be shipped over the next several quarters.

The Company offers a broad range of RF and microwave product offerings designed and manufactured in its scalable Advanced Microelectronics Centers (AMC) located throughout the United States. For applications demanding the highest levels of performance in the smallest possible footprint, Mercury's world-class design engineering team leverages its deep domain expertise in advanced packaging technologies to rapidly develop and commercialize custom RF and microwave components, modules and highly integrated subsystems.

"With co-located engineering and manufacturing resources, our AMC facilities are the ideal solution to deliver highly differentiated custom RF microelectronics with affordable, long-term supply continuity," said Kevin Beals, Vice President and General Manager of Mercury's RF and Microwave group. "Receiving this order from our valued defense prime contractor customer further validates the power of Mercury's next-generation business model to support our military forces with sophisticated microelectronics that are second to none."
